CORNELL SCOTT – HILL HEALTH CENTER TO HOST HEALTHFEST 2010

Annual Health Fair Open to the Public Offers Free Screenings, Entertainment and Activities for Kids and Families

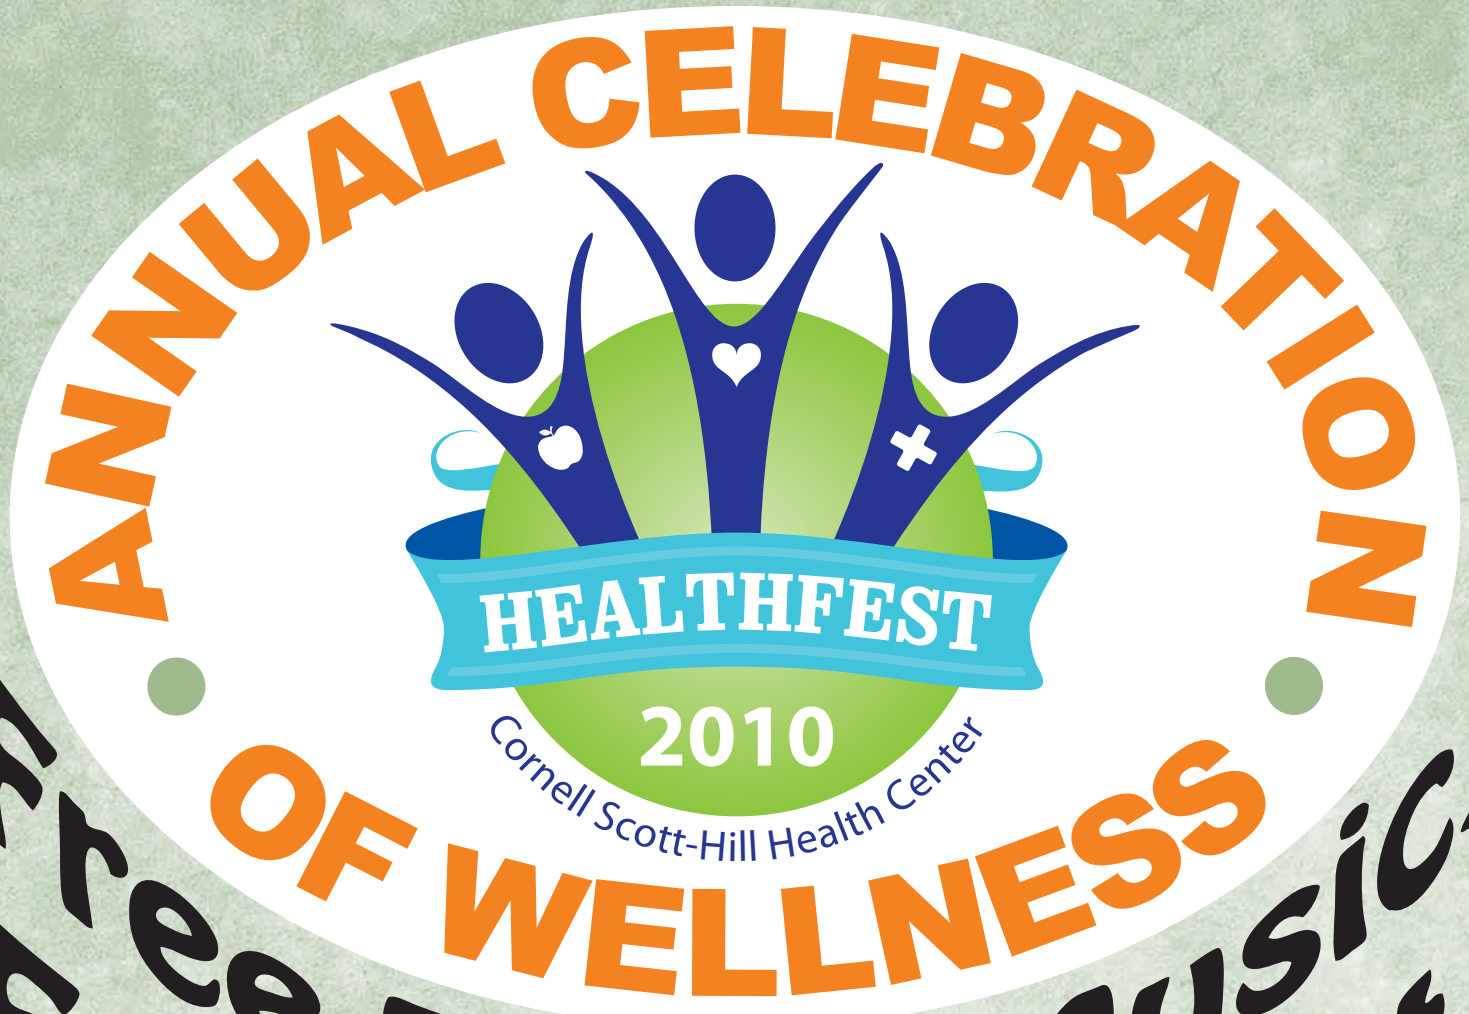

New Haven, CT. — The Cornell Scott – Hill Health Center will be holding its annual health fair on Tuesday September 28, 2010 at the Columbus Avenue location in New Haven. The fair, entitled HealthFest 2010, runs from 1:00 pm until 6:00 pm and offers free health screenings, health information on a variety of topics, free food, entertainment and activities for kids and families.

Many community-based organizations will also be present to share information about their programs and services with attendees. The event is free and open to the public and there is no sign-up or reservation required.

Please reference the attached flyer for additional details.

The Cornell Scott – Hill Health Center is the oldest and among the largest community health centers in Connecticut. The center provides integrated medical and behavioral health solutions throughout the greater New Haven area and the Naugatuck Valley with the goal of improving the health status of patients and the community at large. The Cornell Scott – Hill Health Center has been a leader in community healthcare innovation for over 40 years. Learn more at www.hillhealthcenter.com.
